40 HOUR BASIC TRAINING PROGRAM FOR MARYLAND COURT MEDIATION

September 27 - 30, 2017 8:00 am – 5:30 pm Ellicott City MD

A unique opportunity to obtain the basic 40 hour mediation skills training required by Title 17 to become a court-annexed mediator, plus an opportunity to explore new areas for the mediation of issues involving animal law and disability issues, focusing on service animals.

PRESENTED BY

Cecilia B. Paizs, Esquire

Gary L. Norman, Esquire

Debra Hamilton, Esquire

This 40 Hour Training meets the Title 17 requirements and includes a comprehensive introduction to mediation practice theory, practice, and skills development as well as ethics and practice development considerations. Attendees will receive an intensive, hands-on interactive, skills-based program that uses role-play simulation exercises in which every student participates as an observer and as a mediator during the course of the program. Simulations will deal with conflicts in civil, family, animal law and disability issues focused on service animals.
